

Please do not alter Wisconsin's current "No call" rules by superseding same with Federal rules. To weaken the WI rules would suggest that the Federal Government favors business rights over consumer rights. I don't think that's a message the USA government wants to send. Thank